- a. knowingly devised and intended to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, and for the purpose of executing the scheme and artifice to defraud and attempting to do so, transmitted and caused to be transmitted by means of wire communication in interstate and foreign commerce, writings, signs, signals, and pictures, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343; and custody and control of the Banks, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representation, and promises, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344.

Objects of the Conspiracy

6. The objects of the conspiracy were to: (a) steal identification and bank information from victims; (b) create identification documents containing victim identifiers but depicting the pictures of co-conspirators; (c) travel to bank locations around the country and withdraw money from victim's bank accounts using the victim's identification information, (d) immediately transfer proceeds to various co-conspirators in order to obscure the origins of the proceeds, and (d) enrich the members of the conspiracy.

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

7. It was part of the conspiracy that:
- a. DIOKHANE and JOHNSON obtained stolen bank account and personal identifying information belonging to victims throughout the United States.
  - b. DIOKHANE and JOHNSON would provide the co-conspirator strawmen with the false identity documents depicting the strawman's face and the stolen bank information.
  - c. DIOKANE, JOHNSON, and HODGE arranged for the strawmen to travel by airplane, bus, or car around the United States to locations where victims' banks had physical locations.

- d. Once at the physical bank location, DIOKHANE and JOHNSON caused the strawman to enter the bank with the stolen identity and bank information and cash checks, make withdrawals, or order money transfers in amounts typically ranging from $4,000 to $10,000.
- e. DIOKHANE and JOHNSON took over victim mobile phone numbers by use of false pretenses in order to confirm withdrawal and money transfer authorizations from the Banks.
- f. After the strawman withdrew funds from the victim accounts, the strawman transferred the fraud proceeds to DIOKHANE, JOHNSON, and HODGE, who then distributed the funds to accounts at the Banks and Cash App.
- g. DIOKHANE, JOHNSON, HODGE, and PERRY then traveled around the country using assumed identities in order to evade detection by law enforcement and to locate new banks associated with victims in furtherance of the scheme.
